

I am emphatically against any use of cell phones on airplanes. The rudeness of passengers using cell phones at the beginning and end of flights is already indescribable. I think this will also make the tasks of flight attendants much tougher, as they already have difficulty keeping passengers happy and quiet for the good of all. Please, I beg you, do NOT authorize such usage in any way, shape, or form!